DOLLAR DAY at the newly remodeled Monroe County Fair

July 11, 2007

Rochester, New York – The Monroe County Fair, in its 181st year, has a full slate of events scheduled for the first day of its run on the fairgrounds in Henrietta. The new admission policy remains in effect with Youth 12 and under having free gate admissions.

Today is Dollar Day at the fair with admission only one dollar, parking is one dollar. Unlimited ride wristbands are discounted by $2.00 and the first 100 people to enter the grandstand get $1.00 off grandstand admission.

Today's free outdoor entertainment include the Black Diamond Express at 4pm, followed at 5:30 by Closing Time, at 7:30pm, area youth will compete in the Teen Talent Showcase and at 9:30pm The Surge will perform. Other free entertainment activities include the Great American Duck Races and the interactive play, Dragon Scales and Fairie Tales.

Our livestock barn will host the 4-H Dairy Cattle Show followed by the Open Swine Show. The Open/4-H Rabbit and Cavy Show will take place in Bunny Hollow and the Open Pigeon show will take place in the Poultry Nook.

In the grandstand, Micro-Mini Sprint Car Racing begins at 7pm. Tickets to the grandstand events are $5 and may be purchased at the grandstand gate.

The fair is open 4pm – 11pm and runs through July 15. Discounted Family Fun Packs and Teen Packs can be purchased at Wegman's Video Departments.
