FAIR PLANS COOKING WITH APPLES WORKSHOP

ROCHESTER, NY--The Monroe County Fair Association and 4-H will host a workshop called, "The Apple – As Food and Still Life", on Saturday, May 30 from 10am to Noon at Cornell Cooperative Extension, 249 Highland Avenue. Judy Price, Foods Superintendent at the fair and retired Cornell Cooperative Extension Educator, will show participants how to make apple sauce and apple cake, both of which can be entered into the fair competitions, along with information about apples and their usage. The second part of the workshop will discuss how to prepare photographs and artwork for display. The workshop is free and open to both adults and children. Pre-registration by May 27 is encouraged by calling the Fair & Expo Center office at 334-4000, but walk-ins are welcome.

Information about entering exhibits at the Monroe County Fair, scheduled for July 15-19, will also be available.

For more information about this workshop, call the Fair & Expo Center office at 334-4000, and for fair information, check www.mcfair.com.
